

Enter Symbols or Keywords

Latest News

View All

Al's Emporium

- 3:39p Persistent Obamacare troubles raise questions about proper online tests
- 3:39p The 'worst investment in the world'
- 3:31p BlackBerry co-founders considering bid for company

October 10, 2013 3:37 PM EDT

New York Open London Closed Tokyo Closed

DOW	+288.86	NASDAQ	+81.89	S&P 500	+33.42
15,091.84	+1.95%	3,759.66	+2.23%	1,689.82	+2.02%

AL LEWIS

Shaking down us taxpayers

Commentary: We live in a corrupt welfare state where corporations are experts at tax breaks.
 • Merck's head-count-chopping CEO

NEW YORK MARKETS CLOSE IN: 0:19:59 After Hours Preview Winners and Losers

Home News Viewer Markets Investing Trading Deck Personal Finance Retirement Economy/Politics Industries Log In Portfolio Alerts Games

October 10, 2013

10 people you're not tipping enough

2 of 12

17

Hair stylist's assistant

It's standard to tip your stylist between 10% and 20%, says Eyring—and most people know to do this. But many people forget to tip their stylist's assistant—the person who washes or blow dries their hair or assists the stylist with other tasks.

Tip amount: Advice columnist April Masini recommends $5. Hoffman says that if multiple people work on you—one shampoos and one blow dries, for example, you should give them each a few dollars.

GE Capital Bank
 It's time for a better Online Savings Account
0.90% ANNUAL PERCENTAGE YIELD
 Member FDIC

More Slide Shows

10 people you're not tipping enough

5 top jobs no woman has ever had

States with the most 'zombie homes'

6 places you'll soon have to scan your fingerprint

5 Twitter insiders set to cash in