The Best Valentine's Gift I Ever Bought for $20 or Less

"The best Valentine gift I ever got was a hand-written love letter from my ex-husband, trying to win me back. It really made me feel like Valentine's Day was about more than chocolates, roses and Hallmark cards. This man sat down and wrote from his heart. He didn't text or email. That made it personal, and wildly romantic. Sometimes old-fashioned love letters and simple, elegant gestures are lost in our bigger, better, faster world of tech, speed and gift cards. This gift was about true love, deep romance, marriage and divorce, and it was a showstopper. I don't think I've had a Valentine's Day since, when I haven't thought about that letter he sent me that cost nothing, and meant so much. I still have it, and the sentiments expressed in the love letter are impressed on my heart and in my mind."

 I love page #4 by April Masini because it wasn't about spending any money but about spending yourself - your heart and time.
