Having the right accessories in your wardrobe will make dressing for a date or an event that much easier. With the right combination of accessories, you'll look much more put-together, confident and handsome. Sorry to break it to you but a nice watch isn't the only accessory you should have in your collection. There are several accessories women love to see on men – a collection to choose from allows you to change your look according to your mood and plans. TV host, media personality and fashion expert Natalie Langston suggests: "It's great when men have a collection of smart and classic accessories, and while they shouldn't all be worn at the same time, an individual stylish accessory adds that something extra to his outfit." We've polled several women, fashion experts and dating experts to bring to you the seven accessories women love on men:

A Bow Tie

A bow tie is incredibly attractive on a man. Your bow ties shouldn't be reserved only for formal events, either. There are plenty of more casual bow ties for the everyday man, as well as formal bow ties for special events. That said, a must-have for your wardrobe is a classic black bow tie, like Knot Theory's Classic Black Diamond Point bow tie. It's so James Bond and you'll wear it again and again as it's a classic staple.

Denise, 32, gushed "I met a guy on Happn last month, and on our first date he wore a white dress shirt with a black and white patterned bow tie. He looked so hot in that bow tie and I was really impressed by his effort and first date style."

Relationship Expert April Masini, founder of the AskApril advice forum says, "A bow tie is a very sexy statement of confidence. Whenever a man makes a fashion choice that is beyond the norm, he's expressing his confidence and creativity, in addition to his style. And as much it's rumored that women love a good looking man, what they love even more is one who is confident, creative and leads the pack, which is what a bow tie wearer is doing. "

Suspenders

What goes better with a bow tie than a pair of suspenders? (A bow tie and suspenders together is an incredibly sexy look.) Jia Wertz, Fashion Expert and Founder of Shop Studio 15 states, "Suspenders are often overlooked but are a classic addition to any guy's wardrobe. They're the perfect accessory for a work or formal event because they add sophistication and a pop of style to an otherwise straightforward look. Not to mention, suspenders accentuate your length and give the appearance of broader shoulders which any guy would want and women love." The best suspenders to add to your collection should be neutral colors — beiges or blacks, as they go with anything and will make a timeless addition to your wardrobe. You can pick up an awesome selection of both classic neutral suspenders and fun suspenders at JJ Suspenders. For an especially dapper look, try the Jet Set Classic Black Suspenders.

Kate, 28 says, "Suspenders make a man look put together. The sexy thing about them is that they make him come across as a fun, relaxed and well put-together man. That's the dream guy — someone classy who you can have fun with."

Julie, 29 says, "I literally melt every time I see a man wearing a bow tie and suspenders. Lots of guys only wear this combo at fancy events like weddings, but I recently went to a semi-formal work event and the one man there who had on a bow tie with suspenders had every woman's eyes on him. It just works."

A Silver Chain

A silver chain is a subtle piece of jewelry that will never go out of style and is very versatile. We love the Rebel necklace in silver from The Giving Keys. It adds a pop of style and it will go with many of your outfits. Liz Entin, Fashion Expert and Founder of Runway Passport says, "A silver chain is a simple and classic touch, which adds a bit of style to any look. It's subtle and classic enough that it doesn't dominate, which is great because it shows off your style without being flashy."

Masini states, "A silver chain necklace is a lot more stylish than a gold chain necklace, which can be very 1980s dentist in a Corvette. The silver is closer to grey, which is a sexy color, and it shows that this guy can take a classic and make it modern. The beauty of the silver chain necklace is that it's a lot easier to stack with rawhide if he's an artist, more silver if he's simply creative or platinum watches. The guy who wears a silver chain around his neck is sexy and fashionable in an up-to-date way that never goes out of style."

A Pair Of Dress Shoes

When you wear a nice pair of dress shoes, you don't just look put-together and well dressed, you also give the impression that you care about what you look like. If you're a young professional who wants to be taken seriously at work, you should wear good dress shoes to the office because you have to dress for the role you want. Similarly, if you're going on a date, you want to pay attention to every aspect of your outfit, including your shoes.

Chelsea, 30 says, "I notice a guy's shoes for sure. I think every guy should have a few good pairs of dress shoes because a nice pair of shoes completes the outfit and shows that the guy cares what he looks like and pays attention to all the details."

The Frye Jim Saddle shoe from shoes.com definitely reflects timeless style and proves your sense of fashion.
