Creepy: Complimenting her butt

Or her breasts, or any other part of her body that's normally covered up by a swimsuit. "Some guys think it's okay to stare at a woman's cleavage and then tell her, while licking their lips, how hot she is," says relationship expert April Masini. "This is not flirting. It's lecherously creepy. While women do want to be seen as sexy, sexual beings, you need to wait until you're in a relationship before you assume this type of conversation."

Sexy spin: Complimenting one of her non-physical attributes. Telling her she has a great smile or gorgeous eyes probably won't get you slapped, but it also won't win you points for originality. The compliments that will turn her head are the ones that seem unique to her. Mention that you admire her confidence, how successful she is, or how well she handles difficult situations (Obviously, you'll need context for a few of these.) You'll look like you're really paying attention to who she is—even if you're not.
