

MONEY Personal Finance

The Tipping Bible: Who to Tip and How Much

By GEOFF WILLIAMS

Tipping when traveling.

3 of 10

Back

Next

April Masini, a columnist who writes “Ask April” at AskApril.com, provides these guidelines on tipping while traveling:

Airport or train porter: $1-$2

Cab driver: 10-18 percent, depending on the speed of the cab, your comfort level and how safe you feel during the drive

Hotel concierge: $10-$20, depending on request, at departure

Hotel maid: $2-$3 per night

iStockPhoto

Related Articles

50 Smart Money Moves

50 Ways to Improve Your Finances in 2013

10 Books Investors Should Read

Books for Every Stage of Your Financial Life

Hands Off That 401\(k\)! 3 Reasons You Should Not Touch Your R

Would you like to participate in a brief U.S. News audience survey?

OPEN U.S. NEWS SURVEY

Copyright © 2013 U.S. News & World Report LP. Use

Terms and Conditions of Use / Privacy Policy.